

"The Chronicle"

East Anglia - June 2024

Editorial

After presenting several papers on the subject of "Historians, Chroniclers, & Memoirists", I thought that it might be worth having a go at producing my latest Blog in the form of a Chronicle.

Feedback would be appreciated.

Ancient Charges Ceremony in York

Some 12 members of East Anglia attended the meeting and participated in the wonderful Ancient Charges Ceremony. It is a not to be missed event in the Order's Calander.

Prior to meeting a tour of York Minster was organized by RW Bro Derek Broderick – see photo below. We were shown many Masonic details during the tour, which also included the construction sites of new Workshops and Apprentice's future living quarters.

What are they all looking at?

The left-hand Pinnacle where the Athelstan Grotto is going to be situated in due course.
